

I am writing in support of my FM translator station of K-LOVE which is the primary radio station that my family listens to. This radio station provides a valuable source of worship, praise, and uplifting to myself, my family, and many members of the community. I believe that the services provided by K-LOVE are in the public interest.